UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

No. 1:24-CR-02064-SAB-1

v.

JOSE BAUTISTA ANDRADE,

Defendant.

ORDER ACCEPTING PLEA AND SETTING SENTENCING SCHEDULE

On February 26, 2025, Defendant appeared in custody before the Court in Yakima, Washington and entered a plea of guilty to Count 3 of the Indictment filed on September 19, 2024, which charges Defendant with Possession with the Intent to Distribute 400 Grams of Fentanyl in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 841(a)(1), (b)(1)(A)(vi). Defendant was represented by Alex B. Hernandez III. The Government was represented by Benjamin Seal.

The Court finds that Defendant is fully competent and aware of the nature of the charges and consequences of the plea, that the plea of guilty is knowing and voluntary, is not induced by fear, coercion, or ignorance, and is supported by an independent basis in fact establishing each of the essential elements of the crime. Therefore, Defendant's plea of guilty is accepted.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED:

1. All pending pretrial motions, if any, are DENIED AS MOOT.
2. All previously set court dates, including the trial date, are STRICKEN.
3. Sentencing shall be held May 28, 2025, at 2:30 p.m. in Yakima, Washington.

Pending sentencing Defendant shall remain in the custody of the United States Marshals Service pursuant to this Court's previous Order. A motion to continue must be filed at least

ORDER ACCEPTING PLEA AND SETTING SENTENCING SCHEDULE # 1

1 10 days prior to the scheduled sentencing hearing.

2 4. The United States Probation Officer shall prepare a timely presentence
3 investigation report (“PSIR”) which will comply with the following schedule:

4 (a) Not less than 35 days prior to the date set for sentencing, the Probation
5 Officer shall disclose the PSIR to counsel for Defendant and the United States. Within 14
6 days thereafter, counsel shall communicate in writing to the probation office any 7 objections they may have as to any factual errors or omissions; sentencing classifications;
8 sentencing guideline ranges; and policy statements contained in or omitted from the report.
9 Such communication may be oral initially but shall immediately be confirmed in writing to 10 the Probation Officer and opposing counsel.

11 Objections shall be numbered and identify the paragraph(s) to which the 12 objection applies. Objections shall address the PSIR in sequential order, beginning with 13 the lowest numbered paragraph.

14 (b) After receiving counsel’s objections, the Probation Officer shall conduct
15 any further investigation and make any revisions to the PSIR that may be necessary. The 16 Probation Officer may require counsel for both parties to meet with the officer to discuss 17 unresolved factual and legal issues and counsel shall make themselves available for that 18 purpose.

19 (c) At least 10 days prior to the date of the sentencing hearing, the 20 Probation Officer shall submit the PSIR to the sentencing judge. The PSIR shall be 21 accompanied by an addendum setting forth any objections counsel may have made,
22 including those that have not been resolved, together with the officer’s comments and 23 recommendations thereon. The Probation Officer shall certify that the contents of the 24 report, other than sentencing recommendations, including any revisions or addenda, have
25 been disclosed to counsel for the Defendant and the United States, and that the addendum
26 fairly states any remaining objections.

27 (d) Except with regard to any written objection made under sub-division (a),
28 the PSIR and computations shall be accepted by the Court as accurate. Upon a timely

ORDER ACCEPTING PLEA AND SETTING SENTENCING SCHEDULE # 2

1 objection by the Defendant, the United States bears the burden of proof on any fact that is
2 necessary to establish the base offense level. The Court, however, for good cause shown,
3 may allow a new objection to be raised at any time before the imposition of sentence. In
4 resolving disputed issues of fact, the Court may consider any reliable information
5 presented by the Probation Officer, the Defendant, or the United States.

6 (e) Nothing in this Order requires the disclosure of any portions of the PSIR
7 that are not disclosable under Rule 32 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

8 (f) The PSIR shall be deemed to have been disclosed: (1) when a copy of the 9 report is physically delivered; or (2) one day after the report's availability for inspection is 10 orally communicated; or (3) three days after a copy of the report or notice of its 11 availability is mailed to counsel, whichever date is earlier.

12 5. All written materials in support of sentencing recommendations shall be filed
13 at least 15 days prior to the sentencing hearing. The opposing party shall file and serve
14 a response, if any, within 7 days of receipt of the motion.

15 6. By and through this Order, the District Court Executive is authorized to accept
16 Defendant's payment in the amount of $100 per count, for a total of $100, toward Special
17 Penalty Assessments.

18 The District Court Executive is directed to file this Order and provide copies to 19 counsel AND TO the United States Probation Office.

20 DATED this 27th day of February 2025.
